Models for Human-computer interaction

• There exist several models where the interaction between humans and the artefact is described.

• Examples are:
  – Normans “7 stages”
  – GOMS models (Goals, Operations, Methods and Selection rules).
  – KLM methods