To
You who have been accepted to the Operating Systems distance course

Welcome to the department of Information Technology, Computer Systems and the Distance Course in Operating Systems 5p!

This is the course web page:

<http://www.it.uu.se/edu/course/homepage/os/dist04/>

On this page you will find all information that you will need during the course regarding contents of the lectures, or change of schedule, etc. Please make sure to look at the page now and then to receive the latest information.

All the meetings will be in Polacksbacken, House 1, see the map on <http://www.it.uu.se/contact?lang=eng>. On this page you may also find travel descriptions with bus or by car. Schedule:

- First meeting: Friday, January 23, from 1 to 8 pm, room 1245 and Saturday, January 24 from 9 am to 5 pm.
- Second meeting: February 13-14.
- Third meeting: March 5-6.
- Exam: (probably) March 20.

For the first meeting, make sure to:

- Buy the book (and bring it!): Silberschatz, Galvin, Gagne. Operating System Concepts. Sixth edition. Addison-Wesley, 2001.
- Bring your Uppsala University access card (if you have one).

Since the course will be very intense, it is a good idea to read ahead in the book. The first meeting will cover part one and two; Overview and Process Management. Good luck with your preparations!

If you have questions concerning the course, please feel free to contact me (018-471 75 95, or anna.rodin@it.uu.se).

I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Anna Rodin
