Course for improving information searching skills

When: Friday February 5th at 10.15 am – 12 am.
Where: The Ångström Library, room 11240 (Floor 1 in house 1, between house 6 and 8 in The Ångström Laboratory).

Examples of course content:

- presentation of the Ångström Library's services and resources
- information about subject specific article databases
- general guidance in searching techniques
- information about subject specific e-book collections
- presentation of library catalogues DISA and Libris
- subject guides
- interlibrary loans from other libraries
Ångström Library
Floor 1 in house 1,
between house 6 and 8