This week we have been working on the report and done some further measurements. These measurements are different because we had to change the frequency level. A draft will be sent to you later today.